> It's no longer necessary to provide a reason for voting early. You may apply now to receive an absentee ballot.

EARLY VOTING BY MAIL

- You may apply online for an absentee ballot through either https://www.elections.virginia.gov/citizen-portal/ OR www.vote.org
- Or you may get an application at any Fairfax County Public Library, from the Government Center, or print the application. Or you may also call 703-222-0776 (TTY 711) or email absenteeballot@fairfaxcounty.gov to request that an absentee ballot application be sent to you.
- The application can be returned by
    *Scanning the completed application and emailing it to absenteeballot@fairfaxcounty.gov OR
    *Faxing it to the Office of Elections at 703-324-3725 OR
    *Mailing it to the Office of Elections at Box 10161, Fairfax, VA 22038 (please allow enough time for it to be received by the deadline)
- Once your application is received through any of these means, a determination will be made as to whether you qualify to vote absentee by mail (certain restrictions apply, including that you must have voted in person previously at your current address).
- Absentee ballots will be mailed beginning Sept 18 for those whose applications have been approved.
- Absentee ballot applications will be processed in the order in which they are received.
- Absentee ballots MUST be postmarked no later than Nov. 3 and MUST be received no later than Nov. 6 at noon, but mailing it earlier is recommended to avoid any delays related to mail delivery.
- If you are concerned about mailing delays, drop boxes will be available inside all early voting (10/14-10/31) satellite locations.

You may have received a mailer from the "Center for Voter Information" (CVI) containing an application to request mail-in (absentee) ballots for the Nov. 3 election. The application was pre-printed with voters' names, addresses, etc. However, the pre-printed return envelopes were not addressed correctly.

If you completed and mailed this CVI application, you can expect to receive an absentee ballot. All registrars' offices have agreed to work together to ensure that each application gets to the right place.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

VOTER PROOF OF IDENTITY

Whether you are voting early in person or voting on Election Day, Virginia law requires you to show one acceptable ID to vote. As of July 2020 a photo ID is no longer necessary.

The following forms of ID are acceptable:

- Voter confirmation documents mailed to you when you registered to vote
- Virginia driver's license*, DMV issued ID, or Virginia Voter Photo ID card
- United States passport or other U.S. or Virginia government-issued photo ID
- Employer-issued photo ID or Student ID issued by a U.S. college or university
- Tribal enrollment or other tribal photo ID
- A copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document containing the name and address of the voter

* Virginia law permits an expired DMV license to be used for voting purposes.

> Photo ID is no longer required to vote.

WHAT IF I FORGET MY ID?

- If you get to your polling place without acceptable ID, you can sign an ID statement affirming your identity and you will be able to vote a regular ballot.

- If you do not sign an ID statement to affirm your identity you may vote a provisional ballot. You will be provided instructions to ensure your vote will count.
